The Contest Ended---Election of Mr. Banks as Speaker.

The unprecedented contest for the Speakership was decided on Saturday, at the end of the ninth week of the session, and after more than 130 ballotings. The administration men and the South Americans thought that the vote of Friday for Mr Aiken of S C. indicated the success of a fusion upon him, and accordingly, on Saturday, (as will be seen by the telegraphic despatch of Mr Smith of Tenn. moved the pluralityrule after three additional ballots, and the motion prevailed, 113 to 104.

From the vote it appears that the Southern parties were not generally satisfied, after all, that Aiken could be chosen—nearly all the strength in favor of the plurality resolution coming from the Republicans. It having been adopted, however, Mr Orr withdrew in favor of Mr Aiken, and after three trials for a majority election, Mr Banks, on the fourth vote was chosen by a plurality, as follows: Banks 103, Aiken 100 Fuller 6 Campbell 4, Wells 1 — Mr Fuller had also withdrawn.

A despicable attempt was made to overthrow this decision, by some technical objection—but the more honorable members of the opposition refused to lend themselves to it—and the House declared by a vote of 106 to 39, that Mr Banks was duly elected.

Thus the Republic, by the House, by a firm, steady and honorable course, have finally secured an important triumph for free principles, in despite of traitorous anti Nebraska men and of the more open but not more traitorous enemies of constitutional freedom. Mr Banks is elected—and while the sentiment of the people is thus vindicated we believe the Union itself will be rendered more firm and durable.

We should like to enquire whether our neighbor of the Bangor Democrat sustains President Pierce in the positions taken against the free Statesmen of Kansas, in his recent message.

Does the Democrat say that the Kansas men must obey the black laws of the Kansas Ruffians' Legislature, under penalty of being treated as traitors, and shot down by United States troops if they venture on "organized resistance?"—Gen Pomeroy having informed us that they never could and never would obey those laws?

Does the Democrat go with President Pierce, that the free Soil movement is entirely a treasonable one?

If so—if these doctrines are held as sound by the "national" sham democracy—if these are canonical sentiments with the self styled "Union party"—will it has the Democrat to say to its ally the Bangor Journal, which has felt constrained to utter some objections to Pierces message. Will it not be necessary for the Democrat to flourish the whip again?

A little prompt correction will perhaps be profitable and necessary to secure harmony in the next campaign in the ranks of the national party. The Democrat should no allow the expression of heterodox sentiments from its editor in favor of the free Statement of Kansas. The Journal should not feel compelled to go so far in this direction, for in many cases common sense in the family. Even if Buchanan is the Presidential candidate Buchanan will not object to stand on Pierce's platform if he wants the nomination.

MARINE DISASTERS.—Brig Jo do. (of Camden) Brown, from St. Marks for Boston, lost sails &c. in a gale 5th Jan., and was thrown on her beam ends, and righted in about ten minutes, with loss of masts and everything offdeck. The next day a heavy sea washed four men overboard two of whom succeeded in get ing on board. The remainder of the crew were without food or water for 7 days previous to the 12th when they were taken off by bark Overman, from Gibraltar, and carried to New York. The following are the names of those saved: Capt. Henry Brown; mate, Wm Burke; seamen, Wm L. Lamb, Moses Merrill, S Crowell, and Geo Monks, Wm Spence, steward; and Thos Rose, boy, washed overboard and drowned.

Brig Dunkirk of Ellsworth, at New York from Trinidad, split sails &c., on the passage.

It was rumored in Washington on Wednesday that Dr Volk of New York the K N Representative from the First District, Long Island, has challenged Guy R Pelton Representative from the Third New York city District. The difference between the parties grew out of the letter recently published by the latter, on the Congressional course of the former.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The election in New Hampshire takes place on the 2nd Tuesday of March. Mr Wells, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is stumping the State. The Americans hold a State Convention at Concord, February 5th, to nominate candidates. It is thought they will be nominate Gov Metcalf. A People's Convention is called at the same place on the same day. A Lebanon (N H) paper says —

"We are officially informed that the Councils of the American Order at Hanover and Enfield have each adopted open Order, abolishing their secrecy, thrown overboard all obligations, and taken the same open position occupied by other parties of the day.

"Also ought not the State to appropriate a sum to pay the tuition of the Morrill members to an evening school? They have a good opportunity and an absolute necessity for improvement of mind and heart.—Belfast Journal.

Several evening schools have been opened under the auspices of the present State administration at the "free and easy" hotels under the superintendence of Hutson, Smart, Farley and others in which easy lessons are given in political chicanery and midnight revelings, and illustrations by Gov Wells' new parental relation which the landlord distains to his guests. If these are the opening schools alluded to; we object to any appropriations, for we doubt if the mind or heart can be improved by such schooling.—Belfast Age.

Senator Seward's Speech upon the Central American Question.

We give in full an extract from the synopsis of Mr Seward's speech in the Senate on Thursday.

Mr. Seward reviewed at length the history of the Central American Question, including the ag of Great Britain in the Island of Co contrasted with great power the Lord Clarendon on the points at issue between the two governments, and he arrived at the conclusion that the American po and the American understands right, what ought to be done. He then proceeded to the conclusion of his speech as follows:

I cannot conclude without a brief allusion to some of the circumstances which affect the question of peace or war. In case it should unfortunately be my painful duty to advise the President to recommend to Congress a declaration of war, I regret it deeply; and although I regard it as unjustifiable and evil, I suppose it would be supported by those who now support the Administration. I should, however, enter upon the discharge of that duty with any reluctance. I do not believe war with Great Britain would be a calamity alone. It would be a calamity to all Christendom. It would be a calamity to the whole human race. It would be a calamity to the cause of free institutions throughout the world. It would be a calamity to the cause of Christian civilization throughout the world. It would be a calamity to the cause of human progress throughout the world. It would be a calamity to the cause of human happiness throughout the world. It would be a calamity to the cause of human prosperity throughout the world. I declare it as my solemn conviction that no war could be so disastrous to the United States as a successful war with Great Britain. I do not believe that any such war could be successful. I do not believe that any such war could be successful. I do not believe that any such war could be successful

BANKS ELECTED SPEAKER.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.

House. Mr. Smith of Tenn. said he had heretofore voted against the plurality rule, but as yesterday's vote indicated some chance of an election of Speaker, of a man of sound national views, he now offered a resolution for the adoption of that rule.

The House, by 30 majority, refused to lay the resolution on the table.

The resolution was then adopted by a vote of 113 against 101.

Mr Orr then unconditionally withdrew his name as the Democratic candidate, there being now a probability that greater strength can be concentrated upon his colleague, Mr. Aiken.

Mr. Boyce moved to rescind the motion.

SECOND DESPATCH.

Mr. Boyce's motion to rescind the plurality resolution was tabled, 117 against 101. (Applause.)

Mr. Jones, of Tenn., referred to the terms of the resolution, that if there is no election by a majority, in the next three trials, the candidate receiving the highest vote on the 4th ballot, be declared Speaker. He remarked that the Republicans were prepared for the contest, and moved an adjournment till Monday, to give the other parties an opportunity to arrange their plans. Disagreed to—84 against 103.

Impatient cries of "Call the roll."

Mr. Walker moved to rescind the plurality resolution. Decided out of order, by 45 majority.

Mr. Payne moved an adjournment. Refused.

He then made an ineffectual motion to rescind the plurality rule.

The House proceeded to vote. Banks 102, Aiken 93, Fuller 14.

Messrs. Barclay and Hickman, Democrats, voted for Wells, and Messrs Dunn, Harrison, Moore and Scott, for Campbell of Ohio. Necessary to a choice, 103.

The second vote, excepting that Fuller lost one, was the same as first.

The third was the same as the second, excepting Aiken lost one.

Mr. Fuller of Pa. repeated what he had said on two former occasions, namely, that he was not, and did not desire to be a candidate. 130 ballotings had satisfied him that he was not the choice of a majority of the House, and on no other terms would he consent to take that position.

Mr. Barclay remarked that he had been adverse to anything like a coalition with Know Nothingism, whether it came from the North or South. He took it Mr Aiken whether the latter stood on the Democratic caucus platform, and what use he had for a letter to Humphrey Marshall, making pledges to the southern wing of the K. N's.

Mr. Aiken—I am not a candidate for the Speakership. If my friends think to place me in the chair, I will serve them to the best of my ability."

Humphrey Marshall—I have only to say that Mr. Aiken has addressed me no letter whatever." [Laughter, and cries of "Call the roll," &c.

The excitement was intense during the final ballot, which resulted as follows: Banks 103, Aiken 100, Fuller 6, Campbell of Ohio 4, Wells 1.

Mr. Beason, one of the tellers, then declared that Mr. Banks was elected Speaker. (Deafening shouts of applause followed from the Republicans' side, and other quarters of the House. The ladies waved their handkerchiefs in the galleries. For several minutes the disorder was beyond description.)

Mr. A. K. Marshall raised the question that Mr. Banks was not elected, saying, the Clerk had no power to announce such a result to be announced. It must be declared by the vote of the House.

The Clerk replied, giving reasons which appeared to be satisfactory for his conduct.

Mr. Campbell appealed to the honor of gentlemen to carry the plurality resolution into effect, and end this disgraceful scene.

Mr. Cobb, of Georgia, regarded Mr. Banks as virtually elected by a majority of the House under the plurality rule.

Mr. Aiken asked to be allowed to conduct Mr. Banks, as Speaker, to the chair (applause.)

Mr. Smith, of Alabama, highly appreciated Mr. Aiken's request, if granted, he thought it would heal derision and pour oil on the troubled waters. When grown up men make a child's bargain they ought to stick to it (laughter.)

Mr. A. R. Marshall, during the call of the roll, congratulated his American friends, saying they had fought a good fight and conquered. There was now no Democratic candidate in the field with an offensive caucus platform. Performing his duty as a patriot and not as a partizan, he voted for Mr. Aiken.

Mr. Walker voted the same way, esteeming Mr. Aiken a man with not a tinge of mere partizanism of these sorts—a man who has not sought office, but to whom office is tendered, and is true to the constitution.

Messrs. Pane and Lindley voted for Mr. Aiken, knowing him to be a national man.

Mr. Smith, of Alabama, voted for Mr. Aiken under protest.

Other gentlemen vainly sought to make explanations, the greatest confusion existing.

Several members now changed their votes, and were greeted with applause for so doing. Impatient cries of "Announce the vote!" announce the vote!" The lobbies were crowded to suffocation, and the excitement was increased by the startling cry that a boy was being crushed to death by the pressure in the galleries. Some of the members shouted out, "Pull back" and others, "Hand him over the rail." The boy's agonized length released from his imminent danger.

"Announce the vote!" was now shouted from all parts of the House. After further debate

Mr. Clingman offered a resolution, declaring that by reason of the adoption of the plurality rule, and the votes taken under it, Mr. Banks had been duly chosen Speaker, and is hereby so declared.

Passed by yeas 166, nays 39.

Several gentlemen explained, though they had consistently voted against Mr. Banks, they felt bound as judges, not as electors, to carry out the order of the House by voting for the above resolution.

Mr. Banks was, by request of the Clerk, conducted to the chair by Messrs. Aiken, Fuller and Campbell. He was greeted with loud and enthusiastic cheers, and amidst the profound silence which followed, said—

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives!

Before I proceed to complete the acceptance of the office which you have conferred upon me, I avail myself of your indulgence to express my obligation for the honor conferred upon me. It would afford me greater pleasure were it accompanied even by the self-assurance that I would bring to the discharge of arduous and delicate duties—all were difficult, but now environed with unusual difficulties—any capacity commensurate with their responsibility and dignity. I can only say, I shall bear myself, so far as applicable, with fidelity to the interests and institutions of the country and the government, and with impartiality, so far as regards the rights of the members of this House. I have no personal objects to accomplish. I am animated by a single desire of contributing in some little degree to the maintenance of the well established principles of our government, in their original American signification—in developing that portion of the Continent we occupy, so far as we may do so within the powers conferred upon us—enlarging and swelling the capacities for beneficent influences at home and abroad—and maintaining intact and in perpetuity the inestimable privileges transmitted to us. I am aware neither myself nor any other man is equal to the perfect accomplishment of those duties. I therefore, as a man must in such a presence, be a suppliant for your indulgence and support. I again return to you my thanks for the honor you have conferred upon me (applause deafening and long continued.)

Mr. Giddings, being the oldest member of the House, administered the oath to Mr. Banks, by request of the Clerk.

Mr. Stanton then offered the following resolution:—

"Resolved, That the thanks of this House are eminently due and are hereby tendered to John W. Forney, for the dignified ability, fidelity and impartiality with which he has presided over the deliberations of the House, during the arduous and protracted contest for Speaker."

Adjourned.

The Republicans were wild with exultation and loudly cheered Mr. Banks, and congratulated him on his success.

The Great European Cough Remedy.

Important to the Consumptive and the Public generally. The celebrated

Universal Cough Mixture

IS a safe and effectual Remedy for Coughs of every description, whether of children or adults, of recent or long standing.

PREPARED ONLY BY

REV. WALTER CLARKE,

Sole Proprietor, Connersville, Maine.

Within the last twelve months thousands of bottles of the Universal Cough Mixture have been sold in the State of Maine alone, and everywhere its extraordinary power in relieving and curing diseases of the Chest and Lungs, is gratefully acknowledged, and especially in cases of obstinate and long standing Coughs, it speedily allays the unpleasant sensation in the throat which excites coughing, it promotes free and easy expectoration, and by removing the existing cause of the cough, it frequently enables the sufferers to enjoy natural and refreshing sleep, who for weeks had been deprived of that blessing.

Sold on trial bottles, 25 cents each; large bottles, each containing the quantity of four small ones, 75 cents each.

Extract of a letter from Daniel Adams, Esq., of Boldoinham, Maine.

FEBRUARY, 17th, 1853.

To Rev Walter Clark, Dear Sir—The bottle of Cough Mixture which I bought of you at Topsham had the desired effect very well. She had been afflicted with cough for two years—that bottle entirely removed it.

From Rev. Lemuel Hoyt, Lewiston Falls.

Rev. Sir—Every testimonial in favor of the Universal Cough Mixture which you left with me to sell—and I have several applications to be supplied—I can say from what I have been personally satisfied with the medicine. Coughs, which had a cough of long standing, attended with tightness of the chest and shortness of breath, so that he was laid aside from his usual employment, one large bottle, and before it had taken one half of it was perfectly cured, and has had no cough since. He says it is the best medicine in the world, and cannot be recommended too highly.

JESSE HAYES.

From Mr. Fletcher Chick, agent for North Dixfield, Maine.

Dear Sir—A number of the most extraordinary cures have been effected by your Universal Cough Mixture in this place. Several who had a cough of a year's standing, and others who have been doctored six months without receiving any benefit, have been speedily cured by the Universal Cough Mixture.

From Mrs. Hubbard, Thorndike, Me.

FEBRUARY 1, 1854.

To Rev Walter Clark. Dear Sir—This certifies that I have used three bottles of your Universal Cough Mixture for a distressing cough and soreness in the lungs. I had previously taken several bottles of medicine, and had been under the care of several physicians, without receiving the least relief; happily your Universal Cough Mixture was recommended to me. After using a bottle, which I began to take according to directions on the label, by which in a few days I was entirely cured.

Numerous letters have been received from the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from the professors of several medical colleges, recommending in the highest terms the value of these medicines and their superiority over all other preparations for such complaints as the proprietor recommends. Numerous preparations of Sarsaparilla and Buchu, and various modes of preparing them have been given, all of which of course will differ according to the mode of preparation which each individual may adopt.

These medicines require considerable care in the preparation, and the employment of different menstruas in successive operation to take up the extractive matters, and in consequence, are most frequently improperly made, and therefore greatly impaired, if not rendered totally inert, by the inexperience and unskilful management of those unacquainted with pharmaceutical preparations. It is, therefore, of the highest consideration and importance to the public, and to the faculty, that there should be standard preparations of uniform strength and possessing the most advantages. To effect this and obviate the evil alluded to, I have made a number of experiments to ascertain the most effectual mode of extracting the virtues of the Sarsaparilla and the Buchu, and so discover the most eligible form for their exhibition. The experiments have resulted most favorably, and it is with much pleasure I now offer to the public and the faculty my Compound Fluid Extracts, which contain all the virtues of the articles they are represented to be made from in a highly concentrated form, and are the most active preparations which can be made. Two table spoonfuls of the Extract Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon diet drink, and one bottle fully equals in strength one gallon of Syrup Sarsaparilla or decoction, as usually made.

KENNEDY'S

MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

The Greatest of the Age!

DR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, from the worst Scrofula down to a common pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two. He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will cure the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running in the ears and blotches in the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism.

Three to six bottles are warranted to cure saltrheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the very worst case of Scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day as, that a common weed, growing upon the pastures, and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system: yet here now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to go out. There are no ifs nor ands about it, suiting some cases but not yours. He has peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston, and knows the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. He gave it to children a year old, to old people of sixty; and has seen puny looking children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some who have taken it have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the belly is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week. There is never a bad result from it—on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get, and enough of it.

ROXBURY, Sept. 19, 1853.

This is to certify that H. H. HAY, Druggist, Portland, is the duly AUTHORISED GENERAL AGENT for the MEDICAL DISCOVERY for the STATE OF MAINE, and that he is supplied with the GENUINE, direct from my laboratory.

TESTIMONY FROM MAINE

Capt. Daniel Abbott, Brooklin, Maine, July 10, 1853, says: "I was taken sick, one year ago last April, upon my passage from Havana to Charleston, S.C. As the latter place I took medicine and procured a physician, but for ten days could obtain no relief, no sleep or appetite. At last taking up a newspaper having your advertisement of "Hoofland's German Bitters" in it, I sent for some immediately. This was about, 10 o'clock, at 12 o'clock I took the first dose, and another at 6 o'clock. The effect was so rapid on me that I had a good appetite for supper, and rested well that night, and the next day found me a well man. I have not been without your medicine since, having been sailing between Baltimore, Charleston and the West India Islands ever since. I have now given up going to sea and reside in this place where you should have an agency, as you could sell large quantities of it."

Jos. B. Hall & Co., Presque Isle, Aroostook Co., Maine, April 24, 1854, say: "We herewith send you a certificate of a cure performed by the use of only one bottle of the German Bitters. We think Mr. Clark to be a man of veracity, and have no doubt of the truth of his story."

Messrs. Jos. B Hall & Co.—Gentlemen—In answer to your inquiries I will state, that my daughter, aged about 16 years, has been complaining of a pain in her side for six or seven years, and about the first of January last was taken down and confined to her bed. The pain in her side was very severe, besides being troubled with pains between her shoulders and in her breast. From reading a number of cures performed by "Hoofland's German Bitters, I was induced to try them in her case, and sent to your store and purchased one bottle. She had taken it but a few days when she began to improve, and now, after taking only one bottle, she is enjoying better health than she has for years. She feels no pain in her side or in any part of her body, and attributes her cure entirely to the German Bitters.

WILLIAM CLARK.

Salmon Brook, Aroostook Co., Me.

You should bear in mind that these Bitters are entirely vegetable, thereby possessing advantages over most of the preparations recommended for similar diseases.

For sale by respectable dealers and storekeepers generally. And by J. S. Ingraham, Bangor; W. B. Mowell, Dexter; E. B. Pierce, Lincoln.
